JOB PURPOSE:

To lead the development of discipleship pathways for the 0-8 age group, implementing the work of the Children & Young People workstream within the Diocesan Strategy.

To help lead, develop, coordinate and deliver families and children’s ministry at Holy Trinity with St John’s, Penge, integrated into the work of the whole church and its life and growth

PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTABILITIES:

Resource Hub (60%)

In collaboration with the Diocese CYPF Team to support and equip parishes across the Diocese to grow sustainable, missional CYPF ministries with a specific focus on 0-8 years. You will:

- identify opportunities in up to three link parishes per year identified as part of the Resource Hub Missional Design
- advise and support these parishes to build and develop intentional outreach, network and advice for CYPF Mission & Ministry
- support parishes to equip CYPF ministry volunteers to reach and disciple young people, including training opportunities through the CYPF enhanced learning pathway
- develop a strategy for mission and discipleship for families with children aged 0-8 with a specific focus on key transition points, listening to the voice of families with children in this age group
- take key elements of learning from the pilot of growth and/or drop-off, implement change as necessary and share the pilot’s learning to support flourishing CYPF mission & ministry
- be a strategic voice for children, young people and family ministers within local and diocesan networks
- provide quarterly and annual data on outcomes and indicators of project progress as required by the Diocese

Holy Trinity with St John's (40%)

As a worshipping member of Holy Trinity with St John's, the successful candidate will support and equip us in our Mission Priority to grow as an Intergenerational community of faith. You will:

- develop and implement the missional strategy, working with the vicar, PCC and key volunteer leaders to reach and disciple more families with children in the parish
- help to secure, empower and grow HTSJ children's ministry teams both in terms of practice and in spiritual habits
- develop intentional and innovative outreach in the parish, through planting new worshipping communities eg. In schools
- explore, develop and embed transitional interventions for 5-8s
- work with other local organisations and agencies to support children & families as appropriate

KEY RELATIONSHIPS:

- Diocesan CYPF team
- Vicar of HTSJ
